

ComputerXplorers after school club comes to Queen Eleanor's School

We are delighted to introduce ComputerXplorers, a new and exciting concept in technology education for children to Queen Eleanor's School. ComputerXplorers leads the way in providing technology-based activities that are both inspirational and aspirational.

Our unique brand of engaging and educational programmes is always hands-on with plenty of fun and interaction. We encourage 'e-confidence' in children in an age when computers and technology are essential life skills.

In our first six week course children will learn how to become comic book designers using a child friendly application called Comic Life. In the course they will learn how to use Comic Life to design their own comic books which will then be available to distribute electronically or print out at the end of the course. The course will be open to years 3 and 4

ComputerXplorers offers

- ➔ Lessons that build skills while fostering creativity and confidence.
- ➔ The chance for your child to discover technology through exploration.
- ➔ Weekly take-home materials that inform parents and involve them by providing activities and suggestions that link the learning to you at home.
- ➔ Knowledgeable teachers.
- ➔ Small hands-on classes.

We understand how children learn

Our educational technology experts design instructional classes that challenge children yet set realistic expectations for performance. By understanding what children should be able to accomplish, we can deliver sessions that give children the best possible technology experience and enormous fun.
