It has been a very busy and industrious week at QE this week and the children are in full swing in terms of their work. We are celebrating our school values next week as part of our learning styles day and the children will have the opportunity to shape the new Christian values we will be adopting. I know some of you have also completed the Governor's Ethos survey and I would encourage you to do that if you have not done so already. It can be found on the Latest News page of the website. It's been prayer spaces week this week and the children have all had the opportunity to spend some time in the tent thinking about different themes. A huge thank you to the volunteers from All Saints that have helped and to Mrs Kearns for organising a successful week.

I eventually made it to Kings College this week for the tour and I was hugely impressed with both the facilities and the students. I had an excellent tour given in part by one of our former pupils and it's clear that Kings is a school that is certainly moving forward which is great to see. I hope some of you were able to take a look for yourselves this week. Thank you to Alistair and his team for making us all so welcome.

Sadly, we are going to be banning slime from QE from Monday. We have had a number of incidents of slime getting in places it shouldn't and it has become embedded in the carpet, the curtains, the lunchbands....so please can we ask that the children do not bring it in from Monday. We will be taking it off of the children if we see it as it has caused quite a few problems this week to say the least.

I have noticed this week a lot of siblings at pick up time are scootering or riding their bikes on the school site. Can we please ask that if you are collecting with a younger child you do not allow them to use their scooters on the school site. It is dangerous and we would hate for anyone to get injured. This also applies to the disabled ramp into the office. I have seen 4 different children scoot down it this this week and I am concerned that someone will either fall or they will obstruct someone who genuinely needs to use the ramp.

Just a reminder that the PSA is always looking for extra helpers. If you are able to help and want to be more involved in supporting the school, please contact the office to find out more on how you can join the PSA. We have a number of events coming up this term and the more the merrier!

Have a great weekend!

Thoughtful Time....

This week in Thoughtful Time we have been thinking about standing up for others.....

- Do you stand up for what you believe?
Yes because I am confident to stand out from the crowd.
- When is it right to stand up for others?
I think it is always right to stand up to someone but if it is someone like Mr Blackburn you have to be careful.
- Are you prepared to stand up to others?
Yes because I got bullied quite a lot and was on my own so if I see some one upset I will stand up for them

Wey, 5W

- Do you stand up for what you believe?
I believe I do stand up for what I believe but there are times when I haven't.
- When is it right to stand up for others?
I think it's right to stand up for someone if they're being bullied or hurt physically or mentally.
- Are you prepared to stand up to others?
I usually am but there are times when I'm not.
