

Further Information

Further action

If the you feel that the Governing Body acted unreasonably in the handling of the complaint, you can complain to the Department for Education after the complaints procedure has been completed.

Ofsted will also consider complaints about schools. You can contact Ofsted if you think that a school isn't run properly and needs inspecting. Ofsted will not look into problems with individual students. This course of action is only available if the QE Complaints Policy & Procedure has already been followed.

Unreasonable complaints

For the definition of unreasonable complaints please see the Queen Eleanor's Complaints Policy & Procedure. If a complainant's behaviour causes an unreasonable level of disruption we may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts using a communication plan.

Introduction

QE endeavours to provide the best education possible for all of its pupils in an open and transparent environment. We welcome any feedback that we receive from parents, pupils and third parties, and we accept that not all of this will be positive. Where concerns are raised the school intends for these to be dealt with:

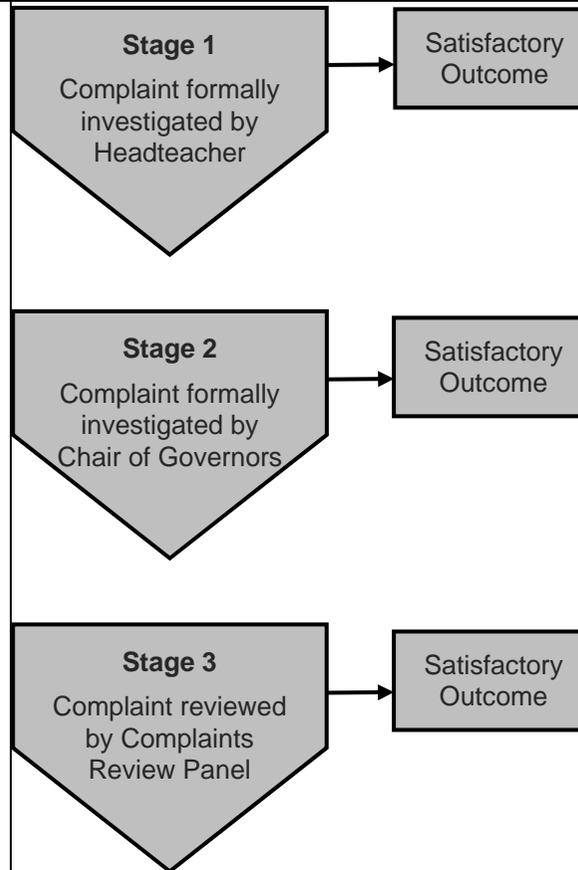

- Fairly
- Openly
- Promptly
- Without Prejudice

Queen Eleanor's operates a three stage formal complaints procedure (detailed overleaf). For more information please refer to the school's Complaints Policy & Procedure document (available on the school website).

If you need to raise an issue in the first instance, please do so with the relevant member of staff who will be happy to talk to you and seek to establish a solution.

If you are not satisfied with this response and believe the issue has not been resolved, please use the three stage formal complaints procedure.

You can obtain a copy of the school's full Complaints Policy & Procedure document (available on the school website).

However, if your complaint relates to:

- Child Protection/Safeguarding
- Admission to School
- Pupil Exclusion
- Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)

Please ring the Surrey County Council Contact Centre on 03456 009 009 and they will put you in touch with the appropriate team who will advise you further.

Stage 2

If you remain dissatisfied with the response of the Headteacher to Stage 1, please complete the Stage 2 complaint form (available from the school office) and return it to the Chair of Governors (via the school office). The Chair of Governors (or delegated governor) will formally investigate and respond to your concerns.
