

Add a relative clause to each sentence.

Remember - a relative clause gives extra information about a noun. It starts with a relative pronoun (who, which, that, where).

1. Many children left their homes to stay in the countryside during the war.

---

---

2. Evacuees carried small suitcases with only their most important belongings.

---

---

3. Each child wore a label with their name on it.

---

---

4. Some evacuees travelled by train to towns they had never heard of before.

---

---

5. Families in safer areas opened their doors to look after the children.

---

---

6. Many evacuees felt nervous because they did not know what would happen next.

---

---