1st December 2020

Dear Parents and Carers,

PSHE Zoom consultations

As of September 2020, the Department for Education made 'Relationships and Health Education' compulsory in all primary schools.

At the beginning of the autumn term, a letter was sent to all families, outlining how we would be teaching PSHE and what any changes would entail.

We are currently organising an online presentation for parents and carers, to clarify in more detail, what these new changes mean to PSHE and what changes your children can expect to see in lessons.

We are able to offer two separate dates for this Zoom presentation; the first will take place on Monday 7th December at 5pm and the second on Thursday 10th December at 5pm. Please note that the same material will be covered on both dates.

If neither of the dates are suitable and you would like to know more about the PSHE changes, please feel free to e-mail the office and they will forward the information from the sessions. After the consultations, the PowerPoint slides used will be available on the school website.

Please find the details for the zoom sessions below:
