READING CHAMPIONS

Dear Parents,

This year, Queen Eleanor's are launching a new parent volunteer programme called 'Reading Champions'. This programme is designed to give children the opportunity to further develop their reading skills. This programme will be most successful with help from volunteers.

We always aim to ensure that your experience of working with us is an enjoyable one and that you feel part of our school. We know that your time is valuable and we want to make sure your sessions with us are as productive as possible. In order to ensure that the reading sessions run smoothly and are most productive we are running a Reading Champions Volunteer Workshop which will include training on delivering the Reading Champions programme, expectations of the role and discussion about the school in general. After attending the workshop, you will need to complete a DBS through our school office. You will then be allocated particular children to work with and will be able to follow them through the school year and share in the progress that they make. Reading Champions will usually be placed in a different class from their child. We would ask that Reading Champions are able to commit to at least one hour per week and can help in school for at least one full term.

The workshop is specifically for volunteers embarking on the Reading Champions Programme, if a parent is volunteering on a one off basis e.g. a school trip they will not need to attend the workshop.

Workshops will take place at the beginning of each school term. The first workshop will take place on Tuesday 15th January at 3.30pm in 4W. If you would like to attend then please complete the form below. You will be asked for your availability and preferred days and times at the workshop.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Walton
