Dear Parents/Carers,

26th November 2018

Valuable items brought to school

Please discourage your children from bringing into school any items of value or personal worth as the school cannot be responsible for the safekeeping of them. We understand how distressing it can be for both children and their parents when personal belongings go missing and feel therefore that the safest place for valuables is at home.

A number of children bring in trading cards such as Match Attax, some of which have higher value and are rather costly (such as 100 club). A plastic, single paged holder containing nine such cards has gone missing from school and we would ask you to keep a lookout at home for it, should your child have inadvertently picked it up.

Kind Regards

Jo Davies
Head of School
